

MINUTES, LIMESTONE COUNTY COMMISSION, AUGUST 5, 2024, WORK SESSION MEETING

The Limestone County Commission reconvened the meeting from June 17, 2024, at 9:00 a.m. today at the Clinton Street Courthouse Annex, 100 South Clinton Street, Athens, Alabama.

Present: Daryl Sammet, Danny Barksdale, Derrick Gatlin, and LaDon Townsend. Absent: None. Collin Daly, Chairman presided.

Jennifer Moore with Soul Savage Ministries addressed the Commission regarding funding for a drug recovery location in Limestone County.

Corry McElyea addressed the Commission regarding the condition of Sharp Road.

Items were discussed for today's meeting.

Chairman Daly announced that they would be entering into a Public Hearing regarding the Solid Waste Management Plan.

Attorney Drew Dill explained that Alabama Code 22-27-47 requires that the County and City to issue a Solid Waste Management Plan every 10 years and submit it to ADEM, and that this is generally a plan as to what the County and City will be doing with solid waste. He further stated that the major change this year, since the County has started its own solid waste collection unit, that it is included and submitted to ADEM. In closing, County Attorney Drew Dill asked that if any members of the community who would like to comment on the Solid Waste Management Plan.

There was discussion about placing the proposed Solid Waste Management Plan on the Limestone County webpage. It was further stated that all notice requirements have been fulfilled and copies of the Plan were and are available at the Commission office.

It was noted that under Personnel, Policies & Staffing Actions that numbers 1 through 3 be taken in one motion, and numbers 4 through 7 be taken in one motion.

Number 10 under "Personnel, Policies, & Staffing Actions" the correct start date for Katina Martin should be August 19, 2024, instead of August 9, 2024.

It was noted that under Budget Revisions that the negative sign in front of $16,500.00 should be a plus sign.

Chairman Daly thanked City Attorney Shane Black for coming to the meeting today.
