

MINTUES, LIMESTONE COUNTY COMMISSION, MAY 2, 2018

The Limestone County Commission reconvened the meeting from April 16, 2018 at 10:00 a.m. today at the Washington Street Courthouse Annex, 310 West Washington Street, Athens, AL.

Present: Stanley Hill, Steve Turner, Jason Black, and Ben Harrison. Absent: None. Mark Yarbrough, Chairman presided.

Stanley Hill reported that his district will no longer be accepting limbs and trees. He was advised by Scott Gravette from the field services division of ADEM that brush had to be hauled to an approved site, burn on spot or allow to rot.

Steve Turner praised the engineering paving crew for doing a great job in his district.

Ben Harrison stated he would like to add to the agenda a Legend bush hog and some other non-inventory items to sell on GovDeals. He discussed amending the Agenda Format for Regularly-Scheduled Meetings in the Rules of Procedures to include Disclosure of any Conflicts of Interest. He introduced Debbie Joiner from the Athens-Limestone Library Board. Ms. Joiner briefed the Commission regarding a green space area to be developed on 1-acre of property adjacent to the library. She said bids had come in high for the project. Ben suggested, to lower cost, the Commission consider adding to Monday's agenda allow the Commission to do the site prep and drainage work at amount not to exceed $20,000. He informed the Commission that the City of Athens had agreed to do the concrete work to help reduce the cost.

Items were discussed for the May 7, 2018 agenda.
